BERRIEN county will have a structing the prosecuting attorcandidate for governor next year in the person of Auditor General Rosco D. Dix. Mr. Dix would make a most excellent "govey" -Iron Port.

Lansing dispatches say that Chase S. Osborn has been offered the position of state railaoad commissioner by Governor Pingree. If this report is true, the Governor has certainly rewarded the right man. Mr. Osborn was an ardent supporter of the Governor and worked hard for his day of March, 1899, at 8 o'clock p. m., nomination. He deserves the position and will fill it creditably.

GRANT WON OUT.

Judge Claudius B. Grant was delegates to which the various counties renominated for justice of the are entitled, based upon the vote for Supreme court at Jackson last Governor at the general election for Wednesday.
